Please provide a statement detailing the purpose of your placement. This section has a weighting of 50% of the overall application. Maximum 1500 words.

Include here:

Background to the relationship and fit with one (or more) of the SGSSS's priority themes.

- Description of your placement objectives and how these will be achieved
- A work plan and a timeline setting out planned research activities (including a specific and justified training programme) and how your activities will contribute towards the achievement of at least 3 out of the 5 objectives of the Saltire programme (see guidelines for an overview of the Saltire programme objectives)
- Potential benefits of the proposed visit to your current/future career demonstrated through critical reflection on: your current skills, developmental needs and how these will be addressed using the VITAE framework as a guide
- Risk assessment and contingency planning
 - Please provide a statement detailing the expected benefits and impact of your placement. This section has a weighting of 30% of the overall application. Maximum 500 words.

Include here:

- ✓ How the work programme will deliver value-added to the Doctoral/post-doctoral experience (including communication, KE, networking, leadership and other employability benefits)
- ✓ How the work programme will nurture inclusive research cultures and contribute to wider cohort development activities for Scotland's wider PGR and ECR social science community (including consideration of under-represented groups)
- ✓ Sustainability of the collaboration beyond the proposed exchange
- ✓ Any potential for engagement with the wider population (e.g., public dissemination activities, research co-design practices)
- Budget and Justification of Resources (please provide full details). Please provide a summary budget in £s and justification of your costs in relation to the following categories. The maximum award is £9500 (assuming a 6-month visit). This section has a weighting of 20% of the overall application. Maximum 300 words.

Include here:

- ✓ Travel Related Costs: value for money should be demonstrated when estimating travel. Costs of visas may be included in this section. Travel insurance should be obtained via your home institution and costs cannot be claimed without a valid justification.
- ✓ Accommodation: value for money should be demonstrated when sourcing accommodation
- ✓ Stipend (PhD students only): PhD students are eligible to apply for a monthly stipend for the duration of the research exchange (as it is expected that studies will be suspended during the exchange period). Stipends will be awarded at the UKRI standard rate of £1,300 per calendar month. ECRs will not be eligible for funding as they should continue to be paid in their substantive role.
- ✓ COVID-19 regulations: base this figure on current regulations for travel from your current country to the country of your proposed research exchange. Note, travel to countries requiring quarantine will not be permitted
- ✓ Bench fees: if your proposed host institution will charge a bench fee or other charge for registration at their institution, please detail it here. Ideally the host institution will be able to waive this amount, but applications will still be considered if you need to factor it into the budget requested from SGSSS.
- ✓ Additional funding for particular needs (e.g., childcare, access requirements, relating to disability): if you would like to request an amount of additional funding to make the Scheme possible to you, please add the estimated amount here, and detail in the Justification of Resources what you are asking for.
- ✓ Other Hybrid/Online costs: For hybrid or online placements additional costs may include set up costs for hybrid events or any specialised licences/equipment necessary for the placement. Costs will not be covered for standard IT equipment or internet costs.
